

7B

Hello! Welcome to 7B and our two form captains: Lara Cadney and Chris Sutcliffe, plus our two vice-captains: Sam Foster and Jolene Biggs. We are a cheerful and lively group. We are a little bit notorious for talking and possibly handing homework a tiny bit late!

We are an environmentally friendly bunch: Emily Aspin and Lara Cadney have organised a can-recycling scheme which everybody supports.

Holly Fletcher is captain of the girls' interform netball team and we have won several games - congratulations to all the girls who are in the team. Rebecca Parkinson has been trying to put together a girls' football team, but she needs some more supporters.

James Fulton and David Oldham set up the boys basketball team. We have played one match and have done a lot of training. Four people from this class are in the school football team. David Oldham is interested in cricket and he is in the team, but nobody else in 7B is.

We are a brainy lot because we did well in the interform quiz. The poster question really tested our memories. Jolene Biggs and company go to PAIS club where they learn about Christianity. Nicholas Hallsworth and Emma Plant have orienteered this year. In drama club Vicky Ormston is just starting to rehearse a Cinderella play.

Sophie Peters and friends joined the choir for a while but only a few are still singing. We are a musical class (and rightly so with Miss Frazer as a form teacher) and many instruments are played, including the guitar, clarinet, horn, saxophone, flute and drums.

We are an artistic lot because we came second in the Christmas decoration competition and some of us went to the sculpture park in Grisdale. Rachael Lever and Lara Cadney are in the final of the science talk on Marie Curie and the discovery of radium.

Jolene Biggs helped to organise a form fast in aid of Concern Worldwide, and she and her friends are doing a sponsored bike ride for Christian Aid. Jolene has also appeared on Blue Peter with her cornet - obviously a star performer!

It just remains to say thank you to our form prefects: Alison Whittaker and Jenny Bowyer and our form teacher Miss Frazer. We are looking forward to the year sleepover and activity day and the end of an exciting first year at BRGS.

7R recently won the inter-form quiz. Most of the pupils enjoy various sports. We are a very loud, rowdy and funny form. We all like having a laugh with our friends and most of us are totally mental! Naomi is our form captain and Mr. Baird is the best form tutor in the school! Four girls from our class play netball for the school and many boys play cricket and football. We all like music, socialising and having fun.

(Gemma Emmerson)

Samantha Rushton: I like cats, rounders and art. I especially like kittens and puppies. I hate history and geography as well as other subjects.

Ruth Syers: I am an intelligent girl and an apple lover. I love the colour green, hate Geography and French and I always like a laugh.

Sarah Maudsley: I am an intelligent, beautiful twelve-year-old and I play the cornet.

Jonathan Booth: I am a great footballer.

James Smith: I am twelve and I like computer games.

Alex Hocking: I'm twelve and enjoy a wide variety of sports.

Daniel Robinson: I am great at swimming and love all sports.

Paul Passmore: I love football so much, I eat, drink and sleep football.

Gemma Emmerson: I am the shy, quiet and reserved member of the group.

Naomi Shearon: I am twelve and enjoy roller-balding and shopping.

Racael Parkinson: I enjoy horse-riding, drawing and shopping.

Peter Hargreaves: I like aeroplanes and steam trains.

Michael Masser: I am the captain of the year 7 basketball team.

Katie Parry: I enjoy playing sports, especially rounders.

Laura Jackson: I'm eleven and enjoy netball.

Jonathan Locke: I'm twelve and enjoy ball games.

Martin Longstaff: I like sport and am good at football.

David Lancaster: I'm eleven and love watching films.

James O'Hara: I'm very small and love to read horror books.

Rory Chamberlain: I'm a professional karter with sponsorship from a very good team.

Jamie Heaton: I enjoy sports like rollerblading and rugby and am a member of Bacup Golf Club.

Luke Postlethwaite: I love countries, especially Lichtenstein.

Michael Smith: I'm good at computers.

Daniel Robinson: I'm third kya at karate.

James Hamilton: I'm twelve and I live in Higham, Burnley. I love football and Newcastle United.

Thomas Corke: Lots of people think I'm stupidly insane, but I'm not really. I like drawing a lot.

Claire Godfrey: I like sports and doing things with my friends.

Gemma Rosthorne: I like shopping and many sports including netball, running and swimming.

7S

Mr Brackstone-
Lauren Aspinall-

a 3-wheel-drivin', hip-hop-jivin', 70's throwback.
is blonde, can be funny at times, but can also be a bit naughty.

Matthew Barnes- is a footy fan, says he's the best, supports Burnley. He always buys sweets at dinner, but he can be funny.

Marie Buckley- can be funny when she wants to be and can be a rebel at times.

Paul Bulman- the boy that can play anything but football.

Francis Chadwick- a school football player, playing mostly in midfield.

Katie Coaker- she's a mad, card-playing fanatic.

Stephen Crane- the guitarist with a cheeky grin!

Carey Delaney- is a very good sports person and a very friendly friend (tautology !- ed.)

Natalie Elliott- she's the Spice Girl of 7S: Mel B style hair and Mel B style cheekiness.

Greg Farrow- is sporty with a very dry sense of humour.

Jenny Gallagher- is a mad, dramatic, goal-shooting, crazy-singing, funky-dancing dillydong.

Amy Gibbons- is a mad, energetic, crazy, fun, dramatic, netball-playing friend.

Mark Hawthorne- enjoys playing football and tries hard at school, is very funny and popular.

Andrew Hayes- is mad, sporty and quite a funny chap.

Catherine Kennedy- is energetic, dramatic, sporty and is a really close and bubbly friend to have.

Michael Kershaw- the short one, nicknamed Ickle Mickle. Has blonde hair and dances when you sing 'Go Mickle, go Mickle.'

Ben Lake- nicknamed Shaun, because of his short, curly hair.

Ben Lang- dark hair with pierced left ear. He's good at playing as a goal keeper.

Matthew Lye- big feet, big Matthew - big on music.

Stephanie Marlborough- is a mad, funky, singing, dancing, imaginative, talented person.

Laura McKenna- is a very confident and funny girl.

Ryan Pearson- we welcome Ryan to planet Earth, he still has some adjustments to make to earth existence, though.

Adam Rhodes- as words fail, there can only be one word: strange.

Luke Roberts- the form's Bill Oddie.

Simon Sharifi- Simon Farzan Peter witheld Sharifi-Jamali is the class's own Pugsley with his flat-top hairdo. Known to the 6th formers as Mafiaman. Will be going into the Guinness Book of Records for the longest name.

Laura Shepherd- is very clever and likes gerbils and crisps.

Adrian Taylor- is a keen cyclist and enters competitions.

Sarah Terry- has a loud mouth that speaks nice words.

Adam Turner- top brain in 7S - genius at its very best. All hail Turnip!

Katie Whittaker- is a good friend and a brilliant card player.

7M

Selina Allonby-

she sometimes flirts a little and has had quite a few boyfriends and admirers. She is quite clever and she's going out with a year nine!

Douglas Argile-

He is the chess genius of the form. He has a great personality and chooses to do good things. He is a good lad, but we'd find it easier to like him if he didn't support Chelsea! He's an important member of the school football team.

Mark Ashworth-

Loves Man. U. An all round friend and good guy.

Emily Black-

Emily always hands her homework in on time. She is shy and likes football.

Kate Bowyer-

Likes chasing boys, but don't catch her when she's moody, lads!

Graham Butler-

Also known as The Poser as he spends most of his time in front of the mirror. He used to be a bit of a womaniser, but they have lost interest as he usually said "No." Always likes a joke and supports LIVERPOOL. As you can see, he's not a football fan. An all-round good guy really.

Sam Charlesworth-

Football crazy, football mad and likes girls, but other than that has a carefree view of the world (also likes doing the bin!).

Stephanie Cockroft-

Stephanie always hands her homework in. She's kind, clever, supports Blackburn Rovers. She has had a few boyfriends but remains admired more.

Amanda Cooney-

Wackyville's town centre, namely Amanda. She's funny and friendly - a good person to play a joke on if done in the right way (don't make her mad though!).

Ben Eacott-

Ben is the king: he's got a brain like Albert Einstein.

Laura Eastwood-

has her hair mostly in a French plait and her tie in a swot knot.

Matthew Goggins-

Not too big,

Not too small,

But is good with a football.

He always teases Peter M.

And chases round the classroom.

Laura Greenwood-

She is a cheeky, but cheerful art lover.

Kirsty Gregory-

is rarely moody, but can be very quiet. She's helpful and a good friend to everyone.

- Daniel Halstead- Can be found at the top of Mount Avenue very often and visits the hairdresser very often - just as often as he visits Mr. Morris!
- Ben Hardman- He likes the girls in his class and is not ashamed to show it.
- Adam Harrison- He loves Natalie and always talks about her and he's got a lot of humour.
- Oliver Johnson- he's funny, but obsessed with two people in the class (no names mentioned apart from Natalie and Selina).
- Robert Maltby- Robert is a strange boy who seems to be obsessed with semi-clothed women! Oo-er! He likes a variety of computer games including Little Big Adventure - 'nough said.
- Peter Marsden- Peter has a mixed sense of humour. He eats crisps and Breakaways and likes Star Wars a lot. He says "I know everything about Star Wars, but not as much as Ben." He likes computer games and computers.
- Thomas Martin- He is a computer bug and does nearly everything on a Windows program.
- Scott Maskell- A small wierdo who's good at acting cockily and picking a fight. He's definitely good at skiving. He also looks a bit wierd with his bowl-cut hairstyle. Top guy really - obsessed with Men Behaving Badly.
- Linsey Murray- is quiet when she wants to be and is a good friend.
- Thomas Onley- tries to be funny, but usually fails. He's interested in horrible smells
- Nicola Pilkington- What words can I use but clever and organised.
- Sarah Thornton- likes to take control and be boss - sorry your highness, but I'm sure you'll agree, she's a very good friend.
- Liam Westwood- plays football nearly every break and dinner time. He also plays in the football team, but isn't as good as Douglas! He supports he worst team ever. (Manchester United)
- James White- is a good sports player with a lot of ability at football, cricket and BMX/mountain biking. He is also obsessed with his Playstation.
- Natalie Williams- is naughty but nice. She can be very loud and she loves Adam Harrison.

8R

Our form teacher is Mr. Stansfield (who likes kebabs!!! - ask Mr. Baird). Our form prefects are Nicky Bangham and Gemma Walmsley. Our form prefects last year were Chris Ball and Laura Hallam.

The R in 8R so far seems to be for romance. By the time our ex-form prefects left it was impossible to separate them!! They are now engaged. Maybe they caught the lovesickness off our very own Mr. & Mrs. Passion. Megan Willingham and Peter Wills have, as I'm sure everyone knows, been going out for over a year.

We have our very own drag queen: Michael/Michelle McIlhone who dressed up for our Midsummer Night's Dream Production. Thankfully his twin brother is certainly more self-contained. We also have another set of identical twins: Matthew and Thomas Surgeon.

Up until Christmas we had another half of a set of identical twins (there must be something in the water), until she left to join her 'other half' at Alder Grange. Shane Kilgariff has since replaced her.

(Lilly Cooper & Joanne Pritchard)

- Sayrah Faza: I am who I am, so I am Sayrah!!! Wow.
- Chris Cook-Martin: I'm thirteen years old and I am very clever - better than Michael.
- Michael McIlhone: My name is Michael and when I am older I want to be Michael McIlhone.
- Siobhan Robinson: I'm thirteen and everyone loves me because I have my bellybutton pierced and I have nice hair.
- Laura Jeffrey: I'm as thick as two short planks!
- Sofia Khan: I'm as short as two thick planks!
- Liza Grimshaw: I'm the freaky one from Russia.
- Danielle Carey: I support Man. U. but for good reasons: David Beckham and Ryan Giggs.
- Joanna Pritchard: I'm the Mary and you're the Rhoda.
- Myles Hayden: I like football, food and T.V. I'll be your best friend!
- Matthew Ward: My favourite sport is street hockey and my favourite food is curry. The best T.V. programme is King of the Hill; I'll be your best friend.

- Paul McIlhone: I like King of the Hill, The Simpsons, Beavis & Butthead and food. I'll be your best friend.
- Matthew Surgeon: I like everything and everyone and I'll be your best friend.
- Shane Kilgariff: I like watching Friends, playing basket ball and football.
- Thomas Surgeon: I like watching Friends and I enjoy kicking Shane's rear at football.
- Daniel Bluer: I like to play (attempt to play) basketball. I like to watch the best show on T.V.: Friends.
- Chris Smith: I like playing table tennis, football and watching Men Behaving Badly.
- Peter Wills: I like football, table tennis and Ben Elton. [what about Megan? - ed.]
- Eric Greenwood: I like swimming and life saving classes. My favourite T.V. programme is Friends.
- Gareth Bunting: I'm obsessed with Star Trek, love swimming and slides at swimming pools. I like reading Earthsea novels.
- Claire Taylor: I love Leo DiCaprio, listening to music and animals.
- Gareth Coffey: I'm thirteen, I love animals, talking, listening and playing the piano, violin and recorder and listening to music.
- Helen Ashworth: My favourite subject is music: I play the flute and like Leonardo DiCaprio and Nick Carter.
- Megan Willingham: My three favourite things in life are chips, Peter and chocolate.
- Jenni Winnard: I'm twelve and my favourite things in life are James, The Verve and my horse: Shamrock.
- Kathryn Dungworth: I'm thirteen. I like playing the keyboard, netball and watching T.V.
- Lyndsey Spiers: I watch all the soaps, The Simpsons and Friends. I enjoy basketball and watching football. I'm addicted to Coke with a lump of ice cream in it.
- Sarah White: I support Man. City, I love football and am addicted to The Simpsons. Aye Carumba!
- Lily Cooper: I like drama, am in Junior Choir and love reading and chocolate.

Ode to 8G

A is for Amy who plays the violin,
A is for Andy who's addicted to gin
And A is for Abby who runs like the wind.
B is for Ben, who always knows best,
C is for the Charlottes, all three of them starlets,
And C is for Chrissy, who isn't a sissy!
G is for Gemma, and the other one too,
And G is for Gary, whose Mum's name is Sue!
J is for Jade with her sun-bleached hair,
J is for James who rocks on his chair.
J is for Joanne, a star in the making,
J is for Jillian who is quite good at baking,
And J is for Johnny whose Dad's now called Ronny!
K is for the Kates, both of them saints.
L is for Lauren, whose auntie is foreign.
M is for the Michaels, Star Trek fans.
M is for Matt who's got really tiny hands.
M is for Michelle, who's mates with Jill.
M is for Mahed who hates the name 'Bill'!
And P is for Pete who can't stand the heat!
R is for Robert, whose mum and dad teach,
R is for Roz who plays on the beach.
R is for Rachel who's never, ever ready
And R is for Ryan whose uncle is Freddy.
Finally, U is for Umar who's got a great sense of humor!

Nightmare Day.

I had a feeling it was going to be a bad day,
It was a very bright morning of May.
The sixth former's were on parade,
Matt was in doubt whether to finish with Jade.

That's the end of our terrible day,
And, please God, make it the last in May.

Adam Cheeseman

Mr. Parky was taking registration.
He was giving us some important information -
He shouted: "What's that? Food and drink?
Go and get a cloth from the sink!"

We went to French, so I wasn't keen
To find that the teacher wasn't to be seen.
We should get a teacher after ten minutes,
But we didn't get one after thirty-five minutes!

We went to R.E. and that was OK -
Thank goodness, we are a quarter of the way through the day.
We went to geography with Mrs. Helm next,
She made us do this massive, long test.

Then we went to history,
Now to me this is a mystery!
The Tippex came across from Cath
Which made most of us quickly laugh.

Kim missed it as she was in a muddle.
Then it went splat, right into a puddle!
Mrs. Hudson gave us a big lecture,
At which we were all left to conjecture!

8M

9B

Well done Jemma, another A -
It might count for something, someday.
Melanie's quiet until on stage,
As Thisbe she'll be the rage.
Emma and Sarah play netball
While their friend Stacey acts the wall.
Jenny's new and is a blast,
What an athlete, she runs dead fast!
Allen and Kay acting the fool,
Hoyle leans back and plays it cool.
Hessy styles and gels his hair,
But look at Hoyle, he doesn't care!

Danny Rose is the King of Slam,
 When Jim is beat, he says: "Oh, damn!"
 Jenny Corrin rides for fun,
 While Brockett and Stuart hang around with Brun.
 Gary Marlow races his cars
 While Hayley Cooly tucks into a Mars.
 Lorna and Laura laugh quite a bit,
 And the Germans think McKenna's fit.
 Phil's dead strong and can lift a house,
 But his friend, Buggy, is scared of a mouse.
 Michael can swim as fast as a fish,
 And that Ken Masser; a bit of a dish!
 Esther and Becky are the best of friends,
 While Anna and Stella keep up with the trends.
 As for Nick, it's up to you,
 And that's all we've got left to do!

(Hayley Bromley, Esther Giddins, Becky Matthews, Ken Masser &
 Nick Starkey)

9R

Although we're not a great sporting form, we have Lucy Molloy who reached the National Netball Finals with the school netball team and Dan Kithan and Chris Hatch who got into the Lancashire basketball final with the basketball team. Daniel Bower plays the number 1 board in the chess team which has finished at the top of the league with QEGS this year and is now looking for victory in the Telford Cup. The girls enjoy shopping, applying make-up and brushing their hair. The boys enjoy watching the girls as they do this!

- Mr. H.: Mr. Curtains himself, the Scouse English teacher is always at the ready to explain, in great depth, characterisation in Romeo & Juliet - but remember, the Nurse is a Capulet! [no she's not - ed.]
- Charlotte Adams: The girl who has had the most boyfriends in year nine (probably!) e.g. Smurf and she is the body spray queen!
- Chris Aspinall: (Sportsman of the Year) Although he's a waster, he has achieved a lot in his athletic career this year. He has joined a football club and fell over on the tennis courts in front of the German girl of his dreams and was covered in dust!

- Andrew Bayley: (Most Messed up Love Relationship). Although being ravishingly good-looking, never pulls the right girls. Played in the football team, but had to retire early.
- Daniel Bower: A chess freak in a world of his own and wants to be the next Kasparov. Swots up work, gets lots of commendations and is a teachers' favourite.
- Louise Cook: Another contender for messed-up relationship, but Mr. Right can't be far away.
- Claire Cullen: is funny and kind and has a boyfriend called Daniel. She definitely talks too much and always stresses her own opinion, but she's a great friend to have.
- Andrew Cummings: This kid has messed up again and again, but has used his wit and humour to get out of jams. He's messed up his teeth so much, his dentist is sick of seeing him.
- Chauncy Dawe: she's funny and she likes Michael Owen. She talks a lot and is the calm, collected one of the form. She's very down to earth and always there to talk to.
- Helen Dawson: maintains her reputation for being one of the most smartly presented members of the class.
- Hannah George: Loves Carte D'Or ice cream. She's obsessed with clothes, especially bras and boob tubes. If she ever asks: "Have I got something on my face?" always respond with: "Yes, you've got a great big spot blooming on yer nose!"
- Sarah Greatrix: She has the second biggest mouth in the form and is always changing her hair colour. She is obsessed with her nose and likes computer games.
- Kate Hayley: the quiet and enigmatic member of 9R, yet liked by everyone.
- Philip Hargreaves: loves chess, maths, homework and teachers. What more could we possibly ask for?
- Chris Hatch: Although Chris's boyish looks have turned him into a popular person with the girls, Chris has returned to his usual ways and tests his 'pulling' power on the boys in 9R.
- Andrew Hemmings: loves football and adores the internet, but never shuts up about women. Reckons he's hard and would like a football signed by Bury F.C.
- Lee Howorth: A strange boy with a strange mind and a strange sense of humour (well we don't understand it anyway). Chris Malby is his friend. He's tall and lanky.
- Ajun Jeyasundurum: Supports Arsenal F.C. and he's got no muscles. He wears black and white striped boxers - we know this because he ripped his pants open!!
- Dan Kithan: Dan's boyish good looks have made many girls fall head-over-heels for him. He's caring and though the bracelet was a nice idea, something went a bit wrong and he ended up getting dumped. No goals in nine games for the football team make him a poor forward!
- Chris Maltby: Chris is very, very quiet. His bestest, bestest friend is Lee Howorth. He's skinny and needs a haircut!!
- Lauren Mannion: Possibly the biggest Boyzone freak in the entire world. She goes on about them all the time and is completely mad.
- Rachel Mills: has the loudest mouth in the world and she's proud of it.
- Lucy Molloy: is the foremost netballer in our form and she outshines any other year nine girl with her athletic abilities.
- Julia Pollard: always knows what she is doing and sorts out the rest of the form. She's very, very organised, but other times not.
- Zoe Poole: Zoe resembles a beef monster munch and all she ever talks about is how gorgeous Matt Williams is.
- Natalie Proctor: is the official record holder for having the curliest hair in the universe. She has fallen over more than 10,000 times in six weeks and has over 8461 scabs on her knees.
- Sean Serridge: the form's friendly guy whose hobbies include chair throwing, chasing innocent first-years and annoying Mr. Ward. His environmental cares are compromised as he throws slices of pepperoni pizza across the room.
- Martin Smith: A friendly person who is good at chess, talks a lot, has a crude sense of humour and is very messy.

Charlotte Walsh:

has recently gained an award for fancying the most boys. She also owns the smallest feet in the world and wears the most eyeliner.

Lucy Whittaker:

She never stops smiling and she's obsessed with her hair. She loves to wear yellow glasses - just like Boyzone do! Completely crazy!

9G

Another morning, another registration Rachel Whittaker, John Syers or Lindsay Simms, depending on the weather, collect the register, while Philip Dwyer tries to extract the previous night's homework from unwilling contributors. Nicola Newton, Dominic Butler and friends bring in their German exchange visitors who are staying in Rossendale and visiting exciting places such as Wigan Pier and Liverpool Docks (highly recommended - ed.).

Three boys: Nick Crowney, Philip Dwyer and Matt Pinner think fondly of their trip to Spain where they took part in a football tournament and polished up their knowledge of Spanish culture. Emily O'Connor and Rachel Whittaker spent a weekend in Ipswich as part of the National Schools' Netball Competition where they came second in the country, the best in Lancashire!

Jenny Walsh and John Syers will never forget their educational holiday in the Mediterranean because it was 'The Cruise from Hell'. The whole class spent a whole day at the Liverpool Maritime Museum in an effort to improve their history and geography, but with mixed success.

On a more artistic note, the class' theatre trip to the Grand Theatre in Blackpool to see Romeo and Juliet helped in our English SATs and will ensure their victory in the year nine drama competition (is that so - ed.) where they will do their own version. Noel Bowen played his euphonium in the Spring Concert and the school assembly the next day. Philip Dwyer joined him on the tuba and they played superbly. Alisdair opted out of playing the saxophone due to unknown circumstances!!! (Skived) Nicola Newton can't wait for summer as she has been accepted into the Sylvia Young Theatre School in London as a result of her dancing skills. Dominic Butler can also take credit for his performance in Crash Norman at Whitworth Civic Hall recently.

Finally, after their successful year, we would like to thank our prefect, Naomi and our form tutor, Mr. Collins for his patience and tolerance of such a quiet and studious class!

9M

Mr. Fuller:

He's the best form teacher we have ever had, but likes flying an open-topped Concorde before arriving at school. His evil grin scares most, but we see beyond the bicycle man joke!

Lauren Ashworth:

She was once seen trying to fish on a frozen lake whilst eating country pancakes and wearing nothing but a scarf.

Thomas Chadwick:

likes sport and he says each of his freckles represents a star.

Louise Daniels:

she likes to eat pens and she is very small.

John Dickinson:

Always a one with the ladies - especially those a year or five younger than him.

Hayley Grimshaw:

the girl who likes to go round school without any trousers on!

Pamela Hawke:

quiet, hard-working Pamela comes top of the class - credit for which must go to Daniel Ruddick next to whom she sat

- in her English classes at the start of the year.
- Jenny Heaton: is very LOUD! Loves netball and is the centre of the crowd.
- Elizabeth Henson: Tries hard at school and is usually quiet. She is very cheerful and friendly.
- David Hoyle: He's the Guinness Book of Records. Extraordinary man (also a tad scary).
- Suzanne Kay: Is often a dreamer and has wild fantasies about maths lessons - and disappears in music lessons.
- Darryl Keane: the most gorgeous, talented, witty, intelligent, pleasant, polite and funny lad in the form - no make that year [I think you looked under antonyms by mistake - ed.]
- Janine Kelly: Never seen in anything that's not a designer label. Also good at netball.
- Graeme King: Always the quiet one, until it comes to the call of nature: he's a bit wild around farm animals.
- Holly Last: Is very artistic and fantasizes about drawing Robert Beefy!
- Sarah Law: Occupation: Trainee nun. Enjoys eating, sleeping, coming to school and joining in on her learn how to talk lessons. She is doing OK., but as of yet I am waiting for her first word. (She loves horses).
- Martyn Lester: is Mr. Sly - always up to something.
- Helen Leyland: is happy and always very cheerful.
- Stephen Lord: likes computers, is quiet, shy and a kinda silent guy.
- Lynzee McShea: There is only one word to sum up Lynzee; she's alright.
- Chris Moylan: Keeps himself to himself. Organised, intelligent and helps me with my technology, but it's still rubbish.
- Shaun Munro: is huge - he eats his meal. He also has big buns of steel.
- Richard Ormerod: Unfortunately I can't say much about Rick as I can hardly ever see him (unless I have a magnifying glass) and even then I can't hear him!
- Daniel Ruddick: is Mr. Cocky - unfortunately for him he likes to be cocky towards teachers.
- Michael Smith: has a coat in the style of a duffel. He also loves to snuffle for truffles.
- Beci Stephenson: is quiet and never causes a riot.
- David Taylor: is quiet and shy, but great with a keyboard.
- Jayne Terry: is loud, but down to earth. She loves her music and her sport, but always has time to talk.
- Rachel Walsh: is very witty and has a nice coat. She is very sociable and loves doing what she's not allowed to do ... I won't reveal the secrets.
- Elizabeth White: is very nice and kind. She enjoys playing her flute and enjoys school. She has a natural talent at being good in school.
- Lindsey Whitelegg: is extremely gullible: she believed that the Channel Tunnel went through water, that a hamster and a rabbit had bred together creating a hambit and that there were 32 days in March. Although she is gullible, clumsy and stupid she is loved by everybody.

10R

In interform basketball, 10R dominated the year with three very strong players: Mark Ashton, Jon Burgess and Tim Bateson, and we won the competition.
